TONTNIGHT’S GAME:
Northwest Indiana Oilmen (15-7, 10-6) vs Michigan City Lakers (Exhibition)

July 7, 2013 • 4:00 p.m. (CT) • Whiting, IN
Radio: AM 1230 WJOB
Internet: nwioilmen.com (UStream)

Oilmen Fall To Vikings
The Oilmen continued their road trip on Saturday night against the Southland Vikings, but ended up falling by a score of 4-2 in Flossmoor.

NWI was paced by RBIs by Leiff Clarkson and Gerrad Rohan, but the Vikings jumped on top early with two unearned runs against Oilmen starter Brett Schneider (1-3), and added to their total with a two-run home run by Jeff Boehm in the sixth.

The Oilmen bats were held in check for the most part, although Clarkson, with two hits in four at-bats, was the only player for either team with more than one hit in the game.

Sweet Relief
The Oilmen bullpen was again a bright spot, as Mike Hanchar, Joe Cochran and Scott Jerge combined to throw three scoreless innings on Saturday. The relief corps for NWI has not surrendered a run in its last nine and one-third innings of work.

All-Stars A-Plenty
NWI had 10 players selected to play in Tuesday’s 2013 MCL All-Star Game at Oil City Stadium. Jimmy McNamara, Michael Steensen, Danny and Matt Pobereyko, Aveeno Naslowski, Ty Hogan, Gerrad Rohan, Jack Czeszewski, Leiff Clarkson and Nick Bartolone will all play, while Justin Huisman will manage the North squad. The game will be called by Oilmen broadcasters Jason Guerette and Jonas Nordman on nwioilmen.com and AM 1230 WJOB as well.

Meet Your 2013 Northwest Indiana Oilmen!

Justin Huisman

Justin Huisman is in his second summer as the manager of the Northwest Indiana Oilmen, having led the team to the MCL title last summer. He is also the head coach of the Trinity College Trolls baseball team. Huisman played collegiately at the University of Mississippi from 1997 to 2000, where he earned honors as an infielder and a closer. At Ole Miss he broke the single-season saves record his sophomore year and surpassed his own record the next year. He also broke the career saves mark for UM. Huisman came out of school after his junior year at Ole Miss, getting drafted in the 15th round of the 2000 MLB draft by Colorado. In four seasons, he jumped four levels with the Rockies, notching 78 combined saves between Low-A, High-A and AA. He was traded to Kansas City in 2004. Though starting out in AAA Omaha for the Royals, Huisman was quickly called up to the big leagues and made his major league debut on April 25th. He went on to pitch 25 innings for Kansas City that season. Before sustaining an arm injury, Huisman posted three more seasons in AAA and one season for the Newark Bears (NJ) in the independent Atlantic League. He currently resides in Crown Point, Indiana, with his wife Julia and step-daughter Isabella.

Nick Bartolone

Nick Bartolone joins the Oilmen having just completed his freshman season at Butler University. The Lafayette native saw action in 22 games for Butler, batting .270 in 37 at-bats, ranking 3rd on the team. At Harrison High School, he set school records for putouts and chances in the outfield, and was all-conference in his sophomore and junior seasons while leading the team in batting. He was also a quarterback and a kicker on the football team.

Rashawn Tillman

A tremendous athlete with great speed, Tillman comes to Northwest Indiana from SWAC school Arkansas-Pine Bluff, where he redshirted this past season. Prior to joining the Golden Lions, Tillman played at Laney College in California. The El Soberante native batted .300 there in 33 games with 16 RBI and 22 runs scored in 2012, his freshman season.

Kenny Mahala

The Highland native had an excellent sophomore year at Heartland Community College, batting .298 with six home runs and 39 RBI, ranking in the top two in both categories on the team. Mahala was a decorated high school player at Andraean HS, leading his team to back-to-back state titles in 2009 and 2010, as well as four straight sectional titles. He also currently holds the Andraean career record for home runs and is second in career RBI and walks.

Joe Houlihan

Joe Houlihan brings experience to the NWI infield this season, having appeared in almost 70 games in the last two years for Central Michigan. The Illinois native batted .247 his freshman year in 2012 with 10 RBI and 3 doubles in 36 games played. Houlihan was also a three-year starter at shortstop in high school at Providence Catholic. A versatile athlete, Houlihan also spent two seasons as the starting quarterback on Providence Catholic’s football team.

Craig Austgen

Veteran infielder Craig Austgen returns to the Oilmen for his second go-around. Austgen batted .296 last season for the 2012 MCL championship squad, driving in 22 runs as one of eight Oilmen with over 100 at-bats. Austgen also paced the Oilmen with four triples on the season. He just recently completed his junior season at St. Joseph’s College (IN), amassing eight multi-hit games and collecting four RBI in a game twice this spring.

Ty Hogan

Naperville, Illinois native Ty Hogan joins the Oilmen from Western Kentucky University, the second Hilltopper on the Northwest Indiana roster after Leiff Clarkson. He redshirted this past season at WKU. Prior to that, he was a three-year starter at Naperville North High School in Illinois, starting each of his three years on varsity. Hogan also played summer baseball with the Illinois Redbirds while in high school.

Meet Your 2013 Northwest Indiana Oilmen!

Chris Marras
Marras comes to the Oilmen familiar with Indiana, as he just completed his freshman year at Butler University.

He also comes to Oil City Stadium eager for at-bats. Marras saw action in seven games this spring, where he was a solid defender behind the plate, making no errors in 23 chances while playing behind two fifth-year seniors.

At Vernon Hills High School, he was named a two-time all-conference selection as well as a Daily Herald All-Area selection.

Scott Jerge
No stranger to Northwest Indiana, Jerge comes to the Oilmen from Valparaiso University, redshirting this past season for the Crusaders.

His high school career was short, but highly decorated. Jerge was a two-year letter winner for the Munster HS Mustangs, and was named Most Valuable Player his senior season. He was also voted Second Team All-Conference and All-Area Honorable Mention his senior year.

Matt Pobereyko
Matt Pobereyko joins his younger brother Danny on the Oilmen roster in 2013. The elder Pobereyko returns to Indiana having pitched this past spring at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

He made 11 appearances and five starts for the Panthers, owning a 2-2 record. He also struck out 23 batters in 30 2/3 innings pitched.

Before that, he played two years at South Suburban College in Illinois.

Josh Negele
Josh Negele returns looking to do even more work for the Oilmen on the mound. In six starts spanning 41 innings, the southpaw gave up only five earned runs and 30 hits, leading the Oilmen with a 1.09 ERA. He also struck out 31 and walked only 12, with one complete game.

He used that summer as a springboard to a very good 2013 campaign with the Indiana State Sycamores. Negele made 20 appearances out of the bullpen, and compiling a 3-1 record with a 3.65 ERA.
