For Starters

The Northwest Indiana Oilmen are looking to extend their biggest win streak in team history on Wednesday as the Oilmen host the Bloomington Bobcats. The Oilmen won their eighth straight which is already their longest in history on Sunday with a 9-3 victory against the Southland Vikings. The Oilmen were rained out on Tuesday at Joliet after the second inning and will be made up on July 10 as part of a doubleheader at Joliet Junior College.

Inside the Oilmen

The Oilmen keep on rolling despite a shortened week with three rainouts. After the game was called in the second inning due to rain the Oilmen return home. Nate Montgomery continues to swing a consistent bat for NWI, as Montgomery was named Midwest Collegiate League Player of the Week after going 5-10 (.500) this past week with four doubles, four runs scored and seven RBI including a 3-4 day in the Oilmen's first victory over the Southland Vikings all season long. The Oilmen got a good pitching performance from their starter Max Franklin on Sunday. Franklin went four innings, scattering two hits, issuing one walk and striking out seven to pick up his second win of the season. NWI starting pitcher Bobby Nowak has thrown 4.2 innings so far this season with three appearances and one start. Nowak owns a 11.57 ERA, has issued five walks and struck out four.

Inside the Bobcats

The Bloomington Bobcats are coming off a 3-2 loss against the Southland Vikings on June 26. Bloomington tried to rally in the ninth inning after stranding runners on third and second with one out but Vikings were able to get the last two outs to secure the victory. Bobcats starter Zach Frey who will be attending Indiana State, makes his second start of the season. Frey owns a 0-1 record with one save and owns a 0.79 ERA in 11.1 innings of work. Frey has issued three walks and struck out 12. Chris Monroe has been a big spark on the offensive side for Bloomington as he is hitting .269 with 18 hits, two doubles, one home run, eight RBI and 12 runs scored.

About the Matchup

The Bloomington Bobcats lead the all-time series, 12-11, with the Oilmen winning the most recent meeting, 11-5, back on June 15. NWI scored seven runs in the first three innings with an offensive outburst. Nick Figus went 4-5 with a home run, three RBI and a run scored against his former team in Bloomington. Oilmen starter in that game Chad Patrick was a bit wild but picked up the win as Patrick went four innings, scattered one hit, one run (none earned), issued five walks and struck out six. NWI looks to tie up the all-time series tonight.

DON POPRAVAK
OWNER/PRESIDENT

OWNER OF THE NORTHWEST INDIANA OILMEN

Don was born in Chicago and was raised on the city's industrial Southeast side a mile from Downtown Whiting. His working class family taught him the values of hard work and commitment to the community. His grandfather worked for U.S. Steel for 45 years, and his father was a Chicago police officer for 23 years while his mother was involved with their grade school parent organization. He attended St. George grammar school and St. Francis de Sales high school, graduating in 1977.

As a two sport athlete he won varsity letters for both baseball and football and was a member of his high school's 1976 State of Illinois summer champion baseball team. In the fall of 1977, Don enrolled at DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. While at DePauw, he majored in Communications. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1981, thus becoming the first member of his family to graduate from college.

Don also participated in all aspects of campus life while attending DePauw University: he was a member of the baseball and football teams for four years and won varsity letters in both sports three times. After his graduation, he began a 30-year career in advertising sales and marketing that took him from Leo Burnett Advertising Agency to the NBC Network News Division. Intertwined with Don's business career is his passion for volunteering. In addition to working with and mentoring youth since 1977, he has spent many hours serving his alma mater and other worthwhile organizations.

ADAM ENRIGHT

MANAGER

Adam Enright is back for his fourth season as Oilmen manager in 2018.

Enright, who has served as an assistant coach from 2012-2014, was promoted to the managerial position prior to the 2015 season. Enright replaced Justin Huisman, who stepped down to spend more time with his family.

After graduating from Munster High School, Enright continued his playing career at South Suburban College and the University of Southern Indiana. He helped the Screaming Eagles to the NCAA Division-II national championship in 2010.

Munster coach Bob Shinkan has fond memories of coaching Enright, a member of one of the Mustangs' most recent final four teams.

"He just loves the game of baseball," Shinkan said. "When he won the national championship with his college team, he called me from the field. I thought that was one of the greatest compliments of my career that a player, in their time of glory, remembered me and called me right after it happened. I'll never forget that."

Enright will never forget the national championship season either, although there may be parts of the experience that are now a blur in his mind.

"It hits you so fast and things move so quickly; we had so many things fall into place right away," Enright said. "I still talk with many guys from that team. Those are relationships that I'll hold close to my heart forever, just because of the journey we went through together."

Among the people from the University of Southern Indiana that hold a special place in Enright's heart is head coach Tracy Archuleta.

"He was a guy who you felt bad for if you let him down," Enright said. "You knew he had a lot invested in you and he cared a lot about you. Having a coach like him and playing at USI was eye-opening for me as far as college baseball is concerned."

After hiring Enright, Oilmen President Don Popravak expressed his delight at having a candidate of Enright's caliber ready to step in.

"We have seen tremendous growth in Adam's ability to work with and help develop the young college players on our club," Popravak said. "Having acquired three years of coaching experience under the guidance of our former manager Justin Huisman will serve him well as the Oilmen pursue the Midwest Collegiate League Championship."

Enright, who is also an assistant coach at Trinity Christian College, is the lone player or coach still with the organization that was a part of the team's inaugural season of 2012.

"I'm thankful to Don for having the faith of putting a new guy in charge and knowing that it's going to work out well," Enright said. "I'm also extremely thankful to Justin for speaking up for me for this job."

OIL CITY STADIUM

Oil City Stadium at Standard Diamonds Park

Standard Diamonds Park was a part of the first phase of the City of Whiting's $50 million Lake Front Development Project. It was Designed by American Structurepoint Inc. and Context, LLC, and built by Powers & Sons Construction Company, Inc.

The stadium combines a unique history, with a progressive way of thinking, to create the premiere amateur stadium in the Midwest. The name Oil City Stadium celebrates Whiting's history as a refinery town tucked away in the Northwest corner of Indiana for over 120 years. The BP Refinery, located just beyond they outfield fence is a constant reminder of the blue collar attitude Whiting was built on.

Oil City Stadium at Standard Diamonds Park is called home to Whiting High School, the Calumet College of St. Joseph Men's Baseball Program, and your 2012, 2016 Midwest Collegiate League Champions - Northwest Indiana Oilmen.
